

RAW SPACE

PERFORMING ARTS VENUE

PRESS RELEASE

January 31, 2012

In order to support a greater focus on music and the performing arts, Raw Space will discontinue daytime cafe service after Friday, February 3rd. We deeply appreciate the support the community has given for our downtown coffee shop.

As difficult as it was, the decision to close the coffee shop will allow us to redirect our efforts toward our core mission as an events venue. We will be enhancing our facilities and services, and continue our growth as a music epicenter.

Show-only business hours begin in February. Event times vary, so visit rawspacemusic.com and facebook.com/rawspace for show schedules. Also, check out The Daily Record, 88.1 The 'Burg, and The Observer to stay in the

We will be enhancing our facilities and services, and continue our growth as a music epicenter.

loop with everything Raw Space.

We started the year with a bang, hosting the phenomenal Allen Stone in January - stay tuned for an amazing season of great music and more at Raw Space.

For more information, contact info@rawspacemusic.com

rawspacemusic.com
facebook.com/rawspace